BEVERLY HILLS MANNERS

— dare to be polite —

Congratulations, they made it in! Acceptance into college is a tremendous achievement and should not be taken lightly. It is an opportunity for your college-bound student to discover their independence and transition smoothly into adulthood as they learn how to think on their feet and navigate their new environment. “Adulthood Class for the College Bound” encourages them to make the most of their college experience while simultaneously maintaining their respect as well as their reputation. From knowing how to properly introduce themselves and meet new peers to learning how to do their own laundry and balance a checkbook, this skillset will provide them with the life tools to prepare them for the real world once they graduate. Of course, no etiquette class would be complete without a multi-course dining tutorial and stimulating conversation. Other program highlights include:
