“Back-To-School Manners for Kids”

Saturday, September 16, 2017

4:00pm to 6:00pm

Girls & Boys Ages 6–12

After the lazy days of summer have ended and the last hurrah of the Labor Day weekend has occurred, children all across the country return to school. Some parents will be jumping for joy and rushing them out of the house desperate for some peace and quiet and others will be experiencing the bittersweet emotion of separation and loss that their “baby” is growing older.

“Back-to-School Manners for Kids” helps children transition gracefully into the new school year. The 2-hour program emphasizes such character-building traits as self-respect, responsibility and control to ensure they not only thrive at school, but enjoy it as well.

Since we encourage children to share their school day at the family dinner table at home, a multi-course dining tutorial is included offering a complete review and practice of their table manners and dining skills.

Program highlights include:

- Starting the School Year on the Right Foot
- Obeying the Golden Rule
- Safety First & Respect Always
- Practicing Good Study & Sleep Habits
- Cleanliness & Prevention of Spreading Germs
- Cultivating Friends & Keeping Them
- Cliques, Cattiness & Bullying
- Birthday Parties & Sleepovers
- Good Sportsmanship
- Social Media Manners
- Sharing Your School Day at Home
