"Downton Abbey" may have bid us adieu, but it helped breathe new life into the importance of good manners, especially the formality of the dining experience. From the pride and care in setting a beautiful table, to the order and placement of the dining implements, and the way in which food is entered into the mouth, dining skills are one of the greatest tools one can acquire that will allow endless opportunities and unlimited invitations. During this 2-hour intensive tutorial, you will relish in the details of setting a proper table and delight in the historical etiquette rules associated with some of our most popular dining conventions. Your newfound confidence will have you feeling passionate about dining as you happily navigate your way around a table from the most casual situation to the height of formality. A multi-course meal will be served providing plenty of practice and application. Cost investment: $165.00 per person includes dinner and glass of wine.
