"THE GENTLEMEN'S SOCIETY" 2-PART WORKSHOP FOR GUYS

Wednesday: 3/15 & 3/29 OR 4/26 & 5/10
5:30pm to 8:00pm

What constitutes a gentleman these days is not as easily defined as it once was. Modern society has made things a bit more complicated for our young impressionable boys. "The Gentlemen's Society" two-part series for teen boys ages 13 and up is an important program to assist young men as they navigate the waters into adulthood. Topics such as appropriate gestures to make on a first date or selecting a suitable outfit for a college interview and knowing how to make polite conversation at a party are just some of the useful and valuable skills that are covered during the program. The curriculum is designed to provide the teenage boy with a greater awareness and confidence as he grows into maturity. By learning and applying these practical skills, he is guaranteed to achieve overall success in each of his endeavors.

2-Part Curriculum Covers:

- Confidence & Character Building Skills
- Image, Style & Grooming
- Speech & Diction
- Making a Positive First Impression
- Fluid Introductions
- Handshakes/Smile/Eye Contact
- Social Networking
- Conversation Techniques
- The Handwritten Note
- Dating and Chivalrous Behavior
- Table Manners & Formal Dining Skills
