Presents

"SUMMER MANNERS BOOT CAMP"

Monday, Wednesday & Friday

July 18th , 20th & 22nd

11:00am to 2:00pm

Registration Fee: $450.00

Children participate in a comprehensive and fun-filled 3-session program that breaks down the manners mystique and shows why manners really do matter. Each day we dissect a relevant topic with an educational component, interactive exercises and practical application. In addition to each lesson, children will learn and practice the tools of the table during a multi-course luncheon dining tutorial.

Session #1: First Impressions & Smooth Introductions

It all starts with a positive first impression and a smooth introduction. This session addresses how we look, how we sound and how we behave. Topics cover posture and poise along with how to properly sit, stand and walk, appropriate attire, hygiene and grooming, as well as vocabulary, speech and diction. We will review meetings and greetings with an analysis of the formal and informal forms, titles of address, world-class handshaking, eye contact and smiling.

Session #2: The Art of Communication

The second session takes an in-depth look at the power of our words whether written, spoken or electronically transmitted. Basic speaking and listening skills and verbal vs. non verbal language are reviewed, as well as telephone etiquette and stationery correspondence. We complete the cycle by dissecting modern forms of communicating including cell phone etiquette, email etiquette, texting, Skyping/Facetime and social media such as Instagram and YouTube.

Session #3: The Social Graces

The program concludes with a review of character-building qualities including respect, consideration, graciousness and honesty. General topics such as identifying attractive behavior, acting with refinement and applying tact and diplomacy are covered, as well as more specific topics including how to politely ask for something and giving a person the benefit of the doubt.
