“Mitzvah Manners”

Children Ages 10-13

The Bar or Bat Mitzvah is a rite of passage into adulthood — a milestone event in the life of a young Jew and his or her family. Everything that happens during this coming-of-age celebration is a reflection on him or her, and it is the responsibility of the Bar/Bat Mitzvah, as host, to set the tone and maintain decorum throughout — from the religious service to the reception afterward. Knowing the proper way to conduct oneself will not only help the student feel more confident and relaxed, it will also help put family members and other guests at ease.

The “Mitzvah Manners” course is designed to assist the Bar/Bat Mitzvah child with everything they need to know in order to shine with grace on their special day. Children who are not hosting their own Bar/Bat Mitzvah, but will be attending as guests will also benefit.

Jewish culture, customs and proper etiquette are explored as they relate to this time-honored celebration.
