“Modern Manners for Today’s Kids”

Select a Saturday

6/18, 7/30 or 8/13

4:00pm to 6:00pm / Girls & Boys Ages 6–12

Children are acting out more and more these days, and our casual society combined with a general lack of respect for authority has only made matters worse. Modern times call for modern measures, and we have just the remedy.

“Modern Manners for Today’s Kids” not only teaches your children the basics from the Golden Rule to the Magic Words, it also ingrains in them the notion that having patience, behaving appropriately, dining properly and being socially adept not only serves their best interest, but has a profoundly positive effect on their interactions with others.

Real life examples and interactive exercises are incorporated into this comprehensive 2-hour program to help drive the point home. A multi-course dinner is also included allowing the children plenty of opportunity to practice their dining skills and table manners.

Program highlights include:

- Attitude, Respect & Consideration
- The 5 Main Magic Words
- Visual Poise & Posture
- How to Properly Sit, Stand & Walk
- Basic Grooming Skills & Personal Attire
- Vocalization Techniques & Speaking Skills
- Self-Introductions & Introducing Others
- Using Titles & Forms of Address
- Handshaking, Eye Contact & Smiling
- Table Skills & Dining Manners
- Making Polite Table Conversation
